Notice Board

Dear Parents,

In the month of February, the children will learn the value of friendship and love this month brings. We will help them to develop and explore the importance of what it means to be friend. The concept will be reinforced by reading about friendships between children from different parts of the world.

The children will experience this first hand at International Day next month where we celebrate different cultures of the world with displays and food.

Academic Theme

Friendships (Making friends around the world) and Teddy Bear Picnic.
